Helping Families Overcome Homelessness 31 S. Spring Garden Street • Ambler • PA 19002 • phone; 215.628.2334

In 1982, a group of pro-active citizens, deeply concerned about the growing number of homeless families with children in Montgomery County, created a 24-hour emergency hotline designed to connect families to available resources. By 1989, this service evolved, in part due to the commitment of founder Lei Barry, who had previously experienced homelessness with her two children. Ms. Barry was committed to establishing a safety network so no other mother would have to face the same challenges she had faced. Using the successful Interfaith Hospitality Network as a model for her programming, in which local churches combine their efforts to provide emergency shelter, Ms. Barry formed a coalition of local congregations dedicated to providing shelter, food, and crucial services to families experiencing homelessness. Thus, Inter-Faith Housing Alliance became the first Pennsylvania Interfaith Hospitality Network affiliate and the third in the nation. Today, IFHA continues to be guided by a mission to serve God by providing charitable services to persons located in Montgomery County whose life situations have become unstable. While all of the families we serve are low income, according to HUD definitions, 50% are very low income and 30% are extremely low income. At the time of intake, many of our families are employed but still unable to meet their housing and nutritional needs. IFHA provides comprehensive essential services to our most vulnerable Montgomery County families with an ultimate goal of increasing the long-term stability and housing tenancy of formerly homeless families. Services include:

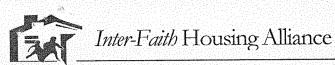

Emergency Shelter: Provided through our network of local host congregations, families are sheltered up to 90 days and congregational volunteers bring and share meals with our families, provide overnight assistance, and help with any transportation needs. In FY2015, 15 families including 19 adults and 29 children were served. Families stayed in the emergency shelter an average of 63 days.

Transitional Shelter (Hope Gardens): This stabilizing transitional housing option is available to families for up to two years to ensure a successful transition to safe, affordable, decent housing. In FY2015, 11 families including 16 adults and 22 children were served. Families lived in transitional housing an average of 261 days.

Support Services: During their time in emergency shelter or transitional housing, families receive comprehensive support services designed to help parents care for themselves and their families, begin intentionally improving their life skills and decision-making abilities, and develop the internal resources necessary to become self-sufficient. Services include: Intensive Case Management, Life Skills Training, Ongoing Support Services for families who have moved into permanent housing, and Food Distribution.

Food Cupboard: Located in Abington, the Food Cupboard is an important way in which IFHA supports Montgomery County families who are experiencing hunger as a result of poverty. The Food Cupboard is open five days per week year-round and served 540 families in FY2015, including 1040 adults and 876 children.

IFHA capitalizes on significant volunteer support in order to provide cost-effective services. Since our inception, volunteers provide the backbone of our programming. Over 9,000 volunteer hours were clocked in FY2015 through our emergency shelter network, Hope Gardens, in our administrative offices, or at our Food Cupboard. Emergency shelter volunteers bring and share meals with our families, provide overnight assistance, and help with transportation needs. Specialized volunteers facilitate our monthly parent education workshops and children's programs. Food Cupboard volunteers unpack, shelf and distribute food, and provide additional service resources to our families. During any given week, 35 to 40 volunteers invest critical resources for our successful programming.

Helping Families Overcome Homelessness 31 S. Spring Garden Street • Ambler • PA 19002 • phone: 215.628.2334

Families living in poverty are under constant distress. Hunger, scarcity, and housing insecurity often lead to chronic trauma. Under these conditions, families are ill-equipped to gain access to stabilizing services that could lead to self-sufficiency. By stabilizing a family's housing situation and providing critical services that support movement towards self-sufficiency, IFHA works to mitigate the effects of homelessness on the children and families we serve. All of our services are designed to meet the following objectives:

- Families take goal-directed steps towards a more stabilized status
- Children attend school regularly

- Families improve their nutritional intake
- Families continue to move toward self-sufficiency after leaving the shelter

IFHA is a member organization of the Montgomery County Your Way Home collaborative along with other shelters and service organizations working to address the needs of families and individuals experiencing homelessness. This collective impact model coordinates care through a central referral system and shared outcome measures. While other providers in the county, and within the Your Way Home collaborative, provide similar services to IFHA, our model is unique in that we have both emergency shelter and transitional housing, providing an opportunity to serve families in different stages of overcoming homelessness. Our unique model can also accommodate families of different composition, such as single parent households and male-headed households. As previously mentioned, IFHA partners with 19 local congregations to provide a community-wide network of emergency shelter and support. Through these partnerships, community volunteers develop positive relationships with our families and often become an additional source of connection to stabilizing opportunities, thus creating an expanded safety network for our families.

IFHA has been responding to the needs of Montgomery County's most vulnerable population for over a quarter century. Our longevity and ability to adapt to a constantly changing economic landscape is a testament to our organizational strength and fortitude. The Eastern Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce recognized IFHA as the 2014 Humanitarian Organization of the Year. This award is reserved for organizations who make significant contributions to the community and use an innovative approach to service delivery. In November 2014, the Religious Leaders Council of Greater Philadelphia recognized IFHA as a Zone of Peace. Zones of Peace recognizes organizations that are pioneering creative responses to the root causes of violence, including poverty and homelessness. Due, in part, to our deep community relationships, IFHA was added as a special funding initiative of First Presbyterian Church of Ambler's current capital campaign. As a result of the success of this campaign, it is quite likely that a permanent housing option will be made available to our families within the next one to two years. We are eager to begin specialized program planning to assist families who are housed in this new offering and recognize the opportunity it provides not only for our families but also for new potential partnerships that could be modeled from this one.
